5. Met with Ed Braswell, Chief of Services Committee, and told him that we had talked with (Braswell's) desire to get together with someone from the	the Director about hi25X1

I talked briefly with Braswell about our interest in H.R. 9900, a bill which would amend the Internal Revenue Code to provide tax benefits for certain persons in a prisoner of war or missing status. This bill is pending before the Senate Finance Committee and Braswell suggested I talk with the Chief Counsel of that staff, Tom Vail.

25X1 25X1	Senator Milton Young, to explain that napplicant for Agency employment in whom the Senator was interested, had told us he was not ready to come on duty on 22 February, as planned, since he was enrolled at Officer Candidate School at Quantico, which would delay his EOD with the Agency for several months. I told Sylvester that in view of this we would still hope to employ at the end of that time, but could give no	25X′

25X1	Called Fran Watkins, in the office of Representative Durward Hall, in response to his note passed to the Director during a briefing of the House Armed Services Committee in which Hall inquired about Agency relations with the other services. We agreed to meet at 0930 on 8 March. Mr. Tweedy will accompany me to the meeting.	25X^
25X1	Jane Lawton, in the office of Speaker Carl Albert, called with reference to our previous conversation on a constituent interested in the possibility of Agency employment and asked if we could arrange for an interview for and I told her we would be back in touch if we couldn't work something out	25X′
